

A MODERN FAIRY TALE IN THE HEART OF ISRAEL

JELLYFISH

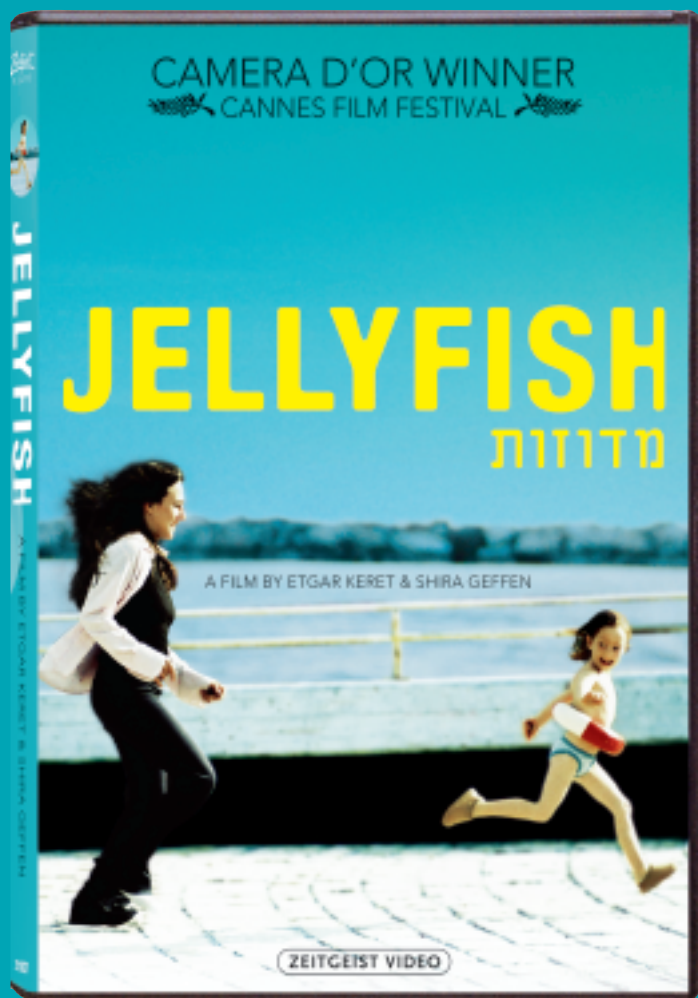

A FILM BY ETGAR KERET & SHIRA GEFFEN

"A dreamy, arty, alluringly cockeyed tale."

—Lisa Schwarzbaum, Entertainment Weekly

"Like Amélie with an attitude!"

—News Blaze

The lives of three women attending a Tel Aviv wedding reception—the bride, a waitress, and a Filipino immigrant—intersect in very mysterious ways in this charming 2007 Cannes Film Festival Caméra d'Or Winner.

★ Co-directed by internationally acclaimed Israeli fiction writer Etgar Keret (The Girl on the Fridge, The Nimrod Flipout), whose stories are regularly featured on hit radio program This American Life

★ As Israel celebrates its 60th birthday this year, Jellyfish joins other Israeli favorites that have recently hit in the US such as The Band's Visit, Walk on Water and Late Marriage

★ Released in over 80 theatrical markets and 60 film festivals

★ Features a new version of Edith Piaf's classic song "La Vie En Rose"
