KIMSTIM & IFC Films PRESENT TWO MASTERPEICES OF ROMANIAN CINEMA

“★★★★!”
Sam Adams, TIME OUT NY

Conceived and scripted by Palme d'Or winner Cristian Mungiu (4 Months, 3 Weeks & 2 Days), Tales From The Golden Age is a funny, poignant and surreal portrait of 1980's Romania. Shot with tremendous style and spirit, the film brilliantly re-captures the mood of an era where undertones of fear, corruption and imprisonment were never far away and where the humor of ordinary citizens played a vital role in facing up to the idiotic logic of the dictatorship. To warm and often hilarious effect, Mungiu employs Romania's top young directors to combine several urban legends to portray a time during which food was more important than money, freedom more important than love and survival more important than principles.

- 2011 theatrical release
- Developed, written and co-directed by red-hot Romanian New Wave filmmaker Cristian Mungiu (4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days)

“This is a tough, shrewd, intelligent movie.”
Peter Bradshaw, Guardian [UK]

From acclaimed Romanian director Radu Muntean (Tuesday, After Christmas), Summer Holiday (aka Boogie) is a funny and bittersweet drama of male mid-life crisis.

During a blissful seaside vacation with his adorable, pregnant wife (4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days' Anamaria Marinca) and young son, 30-something Bogdan (Police, Adjective's Dragos Bucur) bumps into his best friends from high school. They soon fall into wistful reminiscences about their “glory days” of drinking binges and outrageous sexual escapades. Frustrated with the constraints of family life, he decides to indulge in one more wild night of boozing and chasing women with his old pals. But soon he realizes that growing up might just be the best fate of all.

- Directed by acclaimed Romanian filmmaker Radu Muntean (Tuesday, After Christmas)
- Stars hot young Romanian actors Anamaria Marinca (4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days; Julie Delpy's The Countess) and Dragos Bucur (Police, Adjective; Francis Ford Coppola's Youth Without Youth)
